The Lady Cave

Tapping into his inner child for inspiration, Jon de la Cruz recalls his favorite pillowed fortresses and bed linen tents where he could hide and read, listen to his headphones and daydream. His modern screening room recreates a grown-up version of that kind of daily escape, but fashioned with richly embroidered linen tented walls, plush Moroccan rugs, deep tufted velvet sofas and ottomans luxe enough to capture the attention of any wanderlust.

Lemondrop Lullaby

Dina Bandman's sophisticated take on a baby's nursery showcases gender neutral yellow and mint as a substitute for traditional pink or blue. Inspired by the uplifting essence of Amalfi Coast lemon trees, the room exudes cheer with its hand-painted and sequin-embellished de Gournay wallpaper, custom made for the lullaby inducing nursery.
